FORMER SPANISH QUEEN TO

A special dispatch from Madrid says: "Of all the recent royal marriages for love none has caused nor will cause more comment than that which will unite Prince Carlos of Bourbon and Maria de Las Mercedes, Princess of the

"What makes this marriage an as tonishing affair, viewed from the standpoint of those who have always recognized the right of the State to arrange the matches of its rulers, is the fact that the bride-groom-to be comes from s family with very strong Carlist lean-

"Upon the death of Alfonso XII, of Spain, a mite of five years of age became Queen and occupied the throne, in theory, for six months, until the present King was born. When this 5year-old mite grew up to know that she was the Princess of the Asturias, she was not allowed by those in charge of her education to forget that for a sho t time she had been Queen of all Spain.
"When yet a very young girl the Princess Maria met young Prince Car os of Bourbon, the second of 10 child ren born to the Count Alfonso of Caserta and Antoinette de Bourbon. Coming as he does from the Sicilian branch of the Bourbon tamily, and allied with men who were known to be Carlists, the young Prince has naturally cut very little figure as royal personage, "The mother herself was shocked to think that her daughter should have chosen the insignificant Bourbon princeing for a husband. The ultimatum that the wedding could never take lace was delivered to the Princes.

"But the deliverers of the ultimatum eckoned not of the firm will of the oung wo nan who had once Queen. She placidly announced that she would never marry anybody else, and intimated that if she did not beome the wife of Prince Carlos with the consent of the State she might conclude to get married without the said consent. "There was the usual combat, the usual weeping on the part of the mothr, the usual bluffing on the part of he gentlemen who manage the affairs of State. Through it all the Princes tood firm and was disposed to be ugly "She has won at last, and the wed ling will take place with the consent

STOLE HIS LAST KISSES.

The bold, bad young man who for month has spread terror among girls and women of Burlington, N. J., by springing upon them in lonely spots at night and stealing kisses, has at last been caught. Late Saturday night the police were notified that an attack had been made on Mrs. Tutdall, of Conover street, and Policeman Gregg was detailed on the case. The officer hastened to the neighborhood, and on the way ran into a young man whom he has for some time suspected of being the miscreant. Gregg notified him that he was under walked along quietly with the officer outil within a block of the station nouse, when he drew a long iron bolt from his pocket and made an attack on the officer. The prisoner was quickly subdued and taken to the station house At the hearing next morning the youthful prisoner was identified as Wililam Hutchins, the 17-year-old son of Frederick Hutchins, of Burlington, Young Hutchins admitted being on Conover street, but claimed that he cripped and fell against Mrs. Tuidall, and that he had no evil intentions. He was identified by a number of victims, however, and it was also shown that he had been seen in the vicinity on sever-di occasions when similar attacks on lone females had been made. The youtnful prisoner is no doubt a degenrate, as his appearance is that of a feeble-minded person. The prisoner was held pending a further investigation.

During the past month the prisoner has spread terror among the female pop ulation, having a long list of victims ranging in age from 5 to 20 years. His mode of operation was to conceal himself in a dark recess along the street and suddenly dart out, seize his victim, give her a tight squeeze, a resounding kiss and then flee.

QUESTION ANSWERED. Yes, August Flower still bas the largest sale of any medicine in the civi-lized world. Your mothers and grands mothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Bilious-ness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendictis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with beadaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M.
